AG Women

AG Women 2024 THEME- CAPTIVATED: LOVE CAPTIVATED ME

"Gravity is a law of nature we live with every day. Even a child learns quickly that what goes up, will come down. As much as gravity's pull tethers us to the earth, there is another force which serves as an even greater magnet to our soul.

We have been created with a space in our soul that can only be satisfied by God. Like the pull of gravity, his love is drawing us to himself. And once we have experienced the warmth of his presence, the goodness of his character, the depth of his love, and the joy of walking in relationship with the Living Lord, we are never the same."*

He is not here for He is risen, just as He said.

Matthew 28:6

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Wishing You a Blessed and Joyous Easter!

WATCHMEN

“Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for Israel. Whenever you receive a message from me, warn people immediately. If I warn the wicked, saying, ‘You are under the penalty of death,’ but you fail to deliver the warning, they will die in their sins. And I will hold you responsible for their deaths.

If you warn them and they refuse to repent and keep on sinning, they will die in their sins. But you will have saved yourself because you obeyed me.”

“If righteous people turn away from their righteous behavior and ignore the obstacles I put in their way, they will die. And if you do not warn them, they will die in their sins. None of their righteous acts will be remembered, and I will hold you responsible for their deaths. But if you warn righteous people not to sin and they listen to you and do not sin, they will live, and you will have saved yourself, too.” Ezekiel 3: 17-21 NLT

If ever there was a selah moment, this would be it.

Sometimes we pass over things in Scripture because we read with western eyes and don't feel we can relate. But when we read passages of Scripture like these, we might hope they aren't applicable. But it's God's Word right there in black and white, and it's as applicable today as ever. We might argue that this primarily addresses ministers as the overseers and shepherds of the flock and yes, they bear the heaviest weight. But hold on! We are all responsible as guardians of the faith and watchmen in our churches, over our families and in our own spiritual lives. We're all members of the Body of Christ. We're family. We're all watchmen on the wall, responsible to watch and pray.

God's desire for all humanity is that they would repent, turn to Him and be saved. Basically, He called Ezekiel to warn both the sinful and the righteous of the ramifications of their sin. If they heard but ignored the warning, it was on them. If they died in their sin without having been warned, it was on him too.

Our responsibility today is to warn and proclaim as persuasively as possible, but how the message is received is not within our control. The outcome is between them and God. God made Ezekiel as headstrong as those to whom he would speak so their responses wouldn't be a deterrent. He equips who He sends.

There are people dropping off into hell every minute of every day, who haven't been shown the way of salvation, or warned where they'll spend eternity without Christ. Did those responsible for delivering the warning decide they would rather remain silent than cause controversy? God's Word confirms there will be an accounting.

Jesus means for us to act as watchmen! We best do that by fulfilling His charge to be "light" and "salt." Light scatters the darkness and salt preserves from decay. As we look at the darkness and decay in our society today, it's fair to ask, "Where were the watchmen?" We can't sit by while these things are plaguing our society and then complain that they're happening. Taking a stand isn't just done in one's thought life. We're to be watching, seeing and warning.

Staying well-informed regarding world affairs (not the sensational, but the significant) is important. Some Christians feel that watching the news is "unspiritual." It can be if we aren't grounded in the Word. We need both in order to help people understand what's going on around them from a biblical perspective, and not fall prey to religious deception.

Too many are reluctant to address moral issues, considering them too politically controversial, when taking a biblical stand on moral issues is what the Church is supposed to do. Not militantly, but respectfully and unapologetically true to the authority of God's Word. Salt and Light...

Our world is moving toward this time of global tribulation. If ever there was a time to watch and pray it's now! We must make known the hope of the coming Kingdom of God; the wonderful news that Jesus Christ will soon return to bring true peace on earth!

To what degree are you and I called to be watchmen? That's something each of us must prayerfully seek Jesus on. To whatever degree we're called, let's take our places on the wall, work for the Kingdom and pray, looking for the Lord's speedy return!

Watchfulness

Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong. 1 Corinthians 16:13

Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions." Luke 12:15 NIV

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 1 Peter 5:8

See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Ephesians 5:15-16

Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them. Romans 16:17

Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. 1 Thessalonians 5:6

Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward. 2 John 1:8

But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers. 1 Peter 4:7

Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming. Matthew 24:42

"Watch therefore, and pray always that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." Luke 21:36

WE WANT YOU TO BE SAVED!

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16 ESV"

If you do not have a saving relationship with Jesus or need to rededicate your life to Him, this is your moment!

Here is a prayer suggestion for you to lift up to Heaven:

Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God. I believe you died and shed Your blood on a cross for me. I believe You rose from the dead, are alive and are coming again soon.

I come to You as a repentant sinner, asking You to forgive my sins and cleanse me with Your blood. I understand that You are the only way. Please come into my heart and save my soul. I confess You as Savior and Lord and surrender all to You.

Holy Spirit, please empower me to live the Christian life, all to the glory of God. In Jesus' name, Amen

If you prayed this prayer sincerely from your heart, God's Word says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17 NKJV

So CONGRATULATIONS and WELCOME TO THE FAMILY OF GOD! If you have any questions, or would like someone to talk with, please call our church, Ocala First at 352-351-1827.

BOOKS AND BAGELS: Women's Gathering

The Books and Bagels Women's Gathering was a wonderful afternoon of enjoying our special guest and author, Marian Rizzo. Marian spent time answering questions and joining in on the "table talks" with the ladies. We were reminded that each of us have a story. We can go to the Bible and discover what God promises over our future (Jeremiah 29:11).

Women's Gatherings are a time to meet new friends and celebrate God's love. Make sure you are a part of these bi-monthly events!

PACE: Cookie Love

Come Valentine's Day, thoughts turn to expressions of love for those we care about. For our Girls and Women's Ministries that includes the girls at Pace.

52 bags filled with COOKIE LOVE were presented to Pace Girls and Staff this past Valentine's Day.

There are many ways to share the love of Christ with others. Sometimes it can be with cookies!

"So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love." 1 Corinthians 13:13 ESV

Recaps & Updates: Girls Ministries: The BUZZ!

"A friend loves at all times." Proverbs 17:17.

"Let all that you do be done in love." I Corinthians 16:14.

"Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins." I Peter 4:8.

These are all familiar Bible verses. They're easy to say and believe, so we in Girls Ministries wanted to put them into practice with parents, grandparents or guardians. What better day to do that Valentine's Day since it fell on a Wednesday this year!

Each Girls Ministries group had decorations, special snacks, games and lots of love to share with the people who our girls (and preschool boys) live with. Some got to decorate their own cookie or cupcake. Others unscrambled Valentine words. Another group put a paper plate on their head and drew a picture on it of someone special in their life—without looking! You've heard of the game hot potato? Imaging doing that with a stuffed heart toy and calling it "Heart Potato". Fun! Fun! Fun! God's love was everywhere!

COMING UP ON MARCH 14-17 IS POWETTE - a weekend designed for girls in 3rd-12th grade to encounter Jesus in the great outdoors!

Powette includes camping, outdoor activities in the daytime and powerful worship services in the evenings. Your generosity at the Family Feud/Dessert Auction is what sends girls to Powette each year. This year we'll send 45 girls and ladies!

Please keep us all in prayer as the enemy doesn't want any of that for our girls and ladies.

SPECIFICALLY, PRAY FOR:

- *Good weather
- *Hearts to be open to the Holy Spirit
- *A mighty move of the Holy Spirit
- *No mechanical issues
- *Unity among the girls and Leaders
- *Transformed lives changed by the power of God's love
- *Health and strength for girls and adults
- *For the lies of the enemy to be exposed
- *For love, joy and peace for all and new friendships

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.” Galatians 5:22-23

As a young Christian, I remember hearing about the Fruits of the Spirit but truthfully, I never thought of them in relation to myself. I always thought that was meant for other people that were more knowledgeable or spiritual or God “chose” to use.

As I grew, matured and desired to serve the Lord with all my heart, I discovered that the Fruit of the Spirit was meant to be evident and a result of my living a life which honored and loved God. I finally understood that I didn’t have to be a Pastor or have any special ability to be able to share the love of God with others. My life could be such that the cloud of witnesses around me would see the peace of God, His joy, the goodness of the Lord, His faithfulness, a gentle spirit, patience, self-control and kindness in me.

I praise and thank God that all He asks of us is to be surrendered to His will, love and honor Him. God can use us as His hands and feet when we bless others with the Fruit of the Spirit.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT:

LOVE: And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul and all your strength. Deuteronomy 6:5 NLT

PEACE: May the Lord show favor toward you, and give you peace. Numbers 6:26 (NLT)

FAITHFULNESS: Great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:23b (NASB)

JOY: My heart leaps for joy, and I will give thanks to Him in song. Psalm 28:7 (NIV)

GOODNESS: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever. Psalm 23:6 (KJV)

GENTLENESS: Pursue a Godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance and gentleness. 1 Tim. 6:11b (NLT)

PATIENCE: Meanwhile the saints stand passionately patient, keeping God’s commands, staying faithful to Jesus. Revelation 14:12

SELF-CONTROL: A person without self-control, is like a house with its windows and doors knocked out. Proverbs 25:28

KINDNESS: But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.” Galatians 5:22-23

Are we willing to make a conscious decision to step out of our “safe comfort zone” in 2024 to honor God and bless others?

Choices to be made ...

God bless you!

Adversity: Who Needs It?

by Esmeralda Dennis

Over the years of walking with the Lord, I've often pondered "adversity" in the life of the Christian. It has become more obvious to me that I'm not the only one who experiences adversity, but as Christians we may discover that God is not necessarily against things that happen in our lives. A good question I have asked myself is: "Can it possibly be that how we handle it is what God is more concerned about"??

Webster's Dictionary describes adversity as trouble, misfortune or adverse circumstances. How can we avoid this in our lives? Can we minimize our adverse situations by the choices we make or will it come to us in one form or another? I have discovered that adversity is not always bad or from the evil one. How we handle it could determine our spiritual growth in the Lord.

In those times when we find ourselves in an adverse situation, could it be that we are going in the wrong direction and God is trying to get our attention?? Let's face it, we all go through "stuff" from time to time, but the trick is not to "park" there. II Corinthians 1:7 tells us that we can either be afflicted or comforted. Both can be for our good if our attitude is in good standing with the Lord.

In my walk with the Lord over the past 50 years or so, I have experienced many times of adversity, but the good news is that I survived it all! As we keep in mind that we can either keep a good attitude during such times or get mad at God. The latter will hinder our spiritual growth considerably. As I have evaluated this subject, I can only conclude that adversity can come directly from God's plan for our lives or it can be self-inflicted by our willful disobedience.

One direct example of disobedience is found in the book of Jonah. God gave him a clear command to go to Nineveh, but he was not about to obey God. He made a clear choice to disobey God, boarded a ship to Tarshish where a great storm arose. He was then cast overboard and was swallowed by a great fish, which caused him much grief. I would clearly define Jonah's "fish adversity" as self-inflicted by the choice he made.

On the other hand, as I read the book of Job, I can see that Job did nothing to affect his situation. He became desolate, bruised and left with nothing to live for. His wife even advised him to "curse God and die". I believe God knew Job's attitude and character in this horrible adversity would eventually bring victory. This to me was a definite sign that God allowed this in Job's life.

We all have what I call a "comfort zone". If all goes well for us, we keep doing what we've always done. After all, why change it if it's not broken? There have been several times in my own life that God has called me out of my "comfort zone". I have experienced that even being obedient to His plan and purpose can and has sometimes been accompanied by adversity.

As we attempt to follow God's leading, we may find ourselves entering a new level in our walk with Him and there is always a possibility that we will face a new demon. As we remain focused on God, He will enable us to overcome any situation that we face.

Isaiah 30:20-21 states that the Lord can give us "Bread of Adversity and Water of Affliction"...(V. 21). Then it says..."this is the way, walk in it". Nowhere in this verse do I see we are to retreat from adversity, but WALK IN IT!

There have been times in my own life that I felt the walls closing in on me. I found that going back to the time when I started to lose my peace in my circumstance, made a positive impact on my situation. Usually I found it was due to my lack of understanding His direction or maybe this was my time to be in the "valley". The valley experience can either be a time of great refreshing or a time of devastation depending on our attitude.

If we have difficulty discerning what God is doing in our lives, we need to always remember that God knows the beginning from the end. As we let God be God in our lives, we will always feel His overflowing peace and love flood our souls. He desires yielded vessels so He can mold us and shape us into His image. Will that process always be adversity free? NO!!

God is always preparing us for eternity (Ecclesiastes 3:11). He has purposely "PLANTED" eternity in our hearts. All of our life's decisions should reflect our desire for eternity, which will be a lot longer than our life here on earth. Colossians 3:2 instructs us to "set our mind/affection on things above, not on things of the earth".

God wants ALL our attention on Him in our earthly matters. As we are open, pliable, obedient and surrendered to His will, we are sure to live happy and fulfilled lives and see victory after victory as we overcome obstacles we face. It's all up to us!! He will not violate our choices. There will always be a "Y" in the road. It can be God's way or our way. He is a good - good God and desires only the best for His children.

THE LITTLE THINGS

God does little things to get our attention to let us know He knows us intimately.

I often will tell that to the inmates in the prison and they'll share experiences in their own lives that could only have been God! They always want to know how Butterfly Ministries began. This is the story I tell them...

Years ago, I started noticing butterflies. So many of them. I would see them and just get a sense of God's closeness and also feel a spark of hope when my life had so many negative things going on and my sense of value and worth was so low. Just when I would say, "This is never going to end," a butterfly would come floating into my view out of nowhere. It was like a squeeze from God.

That sense of a plan of God for all this developed further when a woman of God prophesied over me and said, "You have a ministry. Ask God what the name of it is." That was in 1985. I asked. But I didn't hear anything.

Months went by and I waited but still didn't hear anything. Hopelessness started setting in again!

On Easter Sunday at church, I met a woman sitting in front of me. I'd never seen her before, but when we greeted each other it felt like I'd known her all my life.

She came to my house. I had not told anyone about me having a ministry. I was very shy about that. She came in, looked around and finally said, "I know the name of your Ministry." You can imagine my surprise when I finally asked, "YOU DO?? What is it?" She said, "All one has to do is come to your house and see. It's Butterfly Ministries!" When she said that, chills went through me and I said, "I think you're right!"

As she had looked around, she had "seen" butterflies fluttering around everywhere outside.

I knew God had sent her to tell me this. I believe in retrospect God used that to inspire me, though I'm not sure she even knew why she was telling me. She was, in effect, prophesying my destiny that wouldn't actually manifest for many years to come. We dropped her off at where she was staying and we never saw her again!

Years went by. Life was still difficult. We had no money. We were fighting, stressed and giving up. Finally we moved from the Keys and ultimately to Ocala. We still had so many problems. I had learned to praise the Lord in every situation and I would play my guitar and sing for relief!

I continued to pray. "GOD WHAT IS MY PURPOSE?" I taught school, I loved my family, and served God wherever I could to the best of my ability.

One day God let me know I was done with teaching school. It made me so sad! I waited. Four months went by and suddenly I got a phone call on a rainy day from the Florida State Director of Evangelism for the Assembly of God. He left a voice message saying, "This is Ed White. Please call Lowell Correctional Institution and volunteer." And that was ALL! I didn't know him. I didn't know how he got my name. I called and made an appointment with the Chaplain to come to his office. I went to see him and next thing I knew I was volunteering.

That was 18 years ago!

What has happened since then has been AMAZING! I have been blessed to go into the prisons of Florida and literally tell hundreds and hundreds of inmates from all over the world, the gospel of Jesus Christ! Many have been saved, filled with the Spirit and forever changed!

I tell them, a butterfly starts out so small, so insignificant, so easy to look past. But when God's got a call and purpose for your life even if you once were just a caterpillar, God through Christ can transform you and make you His vessel to glorify Him and reach others for His purposes!

DON'T LIMIT GOD! HE HAS A PLAN FOR YOU TOO!

Welcome Home!

I'm really pleased to share this recipe! It's a keeper! I tried it in a pinch when company was coming and it turned out great. Bonus: everyone loved it! So, win-win! If you're in a hurry with little time for a conventional pie, try this recipe and let me know how it turns out! Oh, and if you have some whipped cream on hand, it certainly wouldn't hurt to top it off!

*While the recipe calls for canned filling, I had none on hand and no time, but I did have apples, so I made my own filling (recipe included).

Puff Pastry Fruit Pie

Thaw: 40 min.
Prep: 10 min.
Bake: 30 min.
Cool: 15 min.
Serves: 9

INGREDIENTS

1 package (17.3 ounces) Puff Pastry Sheets, thawed
1 egg
1 tablespoon water
1 can (21 ounces) cherry pie filling or apple or blueberry pie filling
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar (optional)

DIRECTIONS

Heat the oven to 400°F. Beat the egg and water in a small bowl with a fork or whisk.

Unfold 1 pastry sheet on a baking sheet. Spread the pie filling on the pastry to within 1 inch of the edge. Brush the edges with the egg mixture. Unfold the remaining pastry sheet and place over the filling. Crimp the edges with a fork to seal. Brush with the egg mixture. Cut several slits in the top of the pastry.

Bake for 30 minutes or until the pastry is golden brown. Cool the pastry on the baking sheet on a wire rack for 15

Stovetop Apple Pie Filling

This recipe is quite easy and replaces 1 can of store bought filling.

Prep: 5 min.
Cook: 7 min.
Total Time: 12 min.
Servings: 8

INGREDIENTS

4 medium apples	1/3 cup sugar
3 Tablespoons water	1 Tablespoon + 1 teaspoon
2 Tablespoons butter	cornstarch
1 teaspoon cinnamon	2 Tablespoons water

* I love nutmeg so I added a pinch with the cinnamon.

DIRECTIONS

Peel, core and slice apples.

Melt butter and cinnamon over medium heat. Stir in apples, sugar and 3 Tablespoons water.

Cover and cook stirring occasionally for 4-6 min. or until very slightly softened.

In a small dish, combine cornstarch and 2 Tablespoons water. Add to pan while stirring and continue to cook until apples are soft (not mushy) and filling is thickened. Let bubble 1 min. Then cool.

Drawing Nearer to Jesus by Shari Sherman

Sergee Bee

It has been an interesting journey over the last year, as we have explored the many ways in which we as Christians are being challenged to influence our culture. Let's refresh our memories of what the 7 Mountains of Influence are. Mountains of influence in American culture are dominate areas that we, the population, are not only driven by, but also personally influenced by. These 7 mountains are titled: Government, Arts/Entertainment, Media, Business/Economy, Education, Religion and Family. In past articles we have looked at the first five and will proceed with the Mountain of Religion.

It is easy as Christians in America to think only of Christianity when we say the word religion. However, in recent years, a number of other religions including Muslim, Hindu, Buddhism, Mormonism and others have grown in popularity. Although our country was established as a Christian nation, we have long since veered from a commitment to Christ and the principles and precepts of the Bible. Even our government at all levels is now being influenced by some of these other religions. This is why it is so important to once again be the cultural influencers of salt and light that Christ called us to be. The season of not talking about religion at family gatherings and friendly get-togethers must come to an end. We should never try to argue anyone into the kingdom of God, but share our own testimony of Jesus. Christianity was meant to be talked about and shared by simply having conversations about who Jesus is and how a relationship with Him has impacted our own life.

We live amongst a lost and dying population of people. If we are to reach those in Ocala, Marion County and America, the ekklesia must come out of the walls of the church buildings. Our nation is full of hurting people and unfortunately, many have been hurt by or in the institution of the church. This doesn't represent the ekklesia, but those who have been hurt don't see the difference and won't unless we show them. They have lumped anyone and everyone called Christian together, as evil hypocrites. We must reach them with the unconditional love of Christ, through relationship. The days of passing out tracks with salvation results have passed. People want genuine and authentic relationship. They want truth and sincerity. We can't expect others to be vulnerable and open, if we won't be.

Another area in which Christians can have great influence in our society is through exercising our right to vote. In 2020, according to Pew Research Center, statistics showed about 64% of Americans call themselves Christians. Among the 64%, only 43% are registered to vote. Translated that means that out of 258.3 million adults in 2020 only 27.5% Christians were registered and less than that voted. The numbers may seem discouraging, but they needn't remain so low. If you are not registered to vote, get registered and vote. If you are registered, make sure everyone you know has also registered, helping those in need.

As if the low voter turnout wasn't bad enough, some Christians voted personal preferences, rather than voting Biblical issues such as the sanctity of life, marriage between a man and woman and secured borders. Yes, secured borders are biblical. As Christians, we are to ¹"Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness..." while dying to self. In choosing government leadership, it is not about a party or a person, but about uniting for righteousness and the kingdom of God in our nation. ²"Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven."

The ekklesia will be challenged in the months and years to come to share the love of Christ to those from LGBTQ+ lifestyles, drug/substance addiction and human trafficking. I believe this will be in mass numbers, as they are desperate for what only Jesus can offer, reconciliation with the Father. For those who grew up in a good church or had a happy life, what many of these people will have gone through will be foreign. Ministering and meeting their needs will require much love, patience and complete dependence on Holy Spirit.

If you have not been baptized in the Holy Spirit, ask the Father. God desires His children to receive all that He has for us, including His Spirit. With His help, the ekklesia will be primary influencers in our nation, drawing people from every religion to Christ.
